REFERENCE LETTER

OBJECT: GERTRUDE EDTSTADTLER-PIETSCH

To whom it may concern,

Founded by two veterinarians who are passionate about languages, Chef du Monde is a professional language services agency offering a unique and extensive range of specialised animal health and veterinary services including translation, interpreting, copywriting, etc.

Gertrude Edtstadtler-Pietsch has been providing translation services since 2007 from English or Spanish into German. The volume of work performed until now has been tremendous and we do hope this will carry on for long coming years.

Gertrude translation quality has always been excellent, thoroughly following our agency specific instructions, adding value with veterinary-specific comments and strictly meeting deadlines, including the tighter ones. Our team at Chef du Monde has always been satisfied with Gertrude's help, pro-activity and overall responsiveness.

We can, with no hesitation, recommend Gertrude to any other language service provider or translation buyer, her work being simply excellent!

Yours sincerely,

Fabio Ercole, DVM
Founder & Director
